

The G.K. Chesterton Institute for Faith & Culture
UNPACKING THE LEGACY
Responding to the Life and Thought of John Paul II

THE GENIUS OF WOMEN

Sunday 10th July 2005 10.30 am to 6.30 pm

The Oxford University Catholic Chaplaincy
Newman Room, Old Palace, Rose Place, St Aldate's, Oxford

Admittance for the day £10 (students £4) – incl. coffee & tea – bring packed lunch

10.30: Leonie Caldecott (Chesterton Institute):
The Challenge of the New Feminism

11.00: Dr Carol Zaleski (Smith College USA):
“He takes nothing away, and he gives you everything”:
John Paul II, Benedict XVI and the Education of Women in a Post-Feminist Age
11.45 Coffee / 12.00: Angelus

12.05: Dr Anne Langslow (anthropologist):
Integrated Motherhood: A Catholic and Cross-Cultural Defense
13.00: Lunchtime

14.00: Panel discussion and open forum with Anna Zaranko, Katy Whisenant, Julie Olsen and others.

15.00: Sr Benedict Gaughan OSB:
Complementarity of Religious Life and Motherhood – A Monastic Perspective
15.45: Tea Break

16.15: Josephine Robinson:
The Genius of Women through the Ages

17.00: Panel discussion and open forum, led by younger women

18.30: Closing Mass: Celebrant and Preacher Fr Iain Matthew OCD

Optional background reading for this session is at www.secondspring.co.uk/archive/lcaldecott6.htm
Information: S. Caldecott, 6a King St, Oxford OX2 6DF <s_caldecott@yahoo.co.uk>