The Joyful Meeting

By Madeleine Carroll; illustrated by Michelle Pitt

Note to Parents

I hope this storybook serves as a useful catechetical tool for you to use with your children. By reading the text aloud slowly and meditatively, and encouraging your child to take their time looking at each of the pictures, they may develop further their relationship with, and love of their Friend, the Risen Jesus.

 Madeleine Carroll

Queen of heaven, rejoice, alleluia!
for he whom you were worthy to bear, alleluia!
has risen as he said, alleluia!
Pray for us to God, alleluia!

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia!
R. Because the Lord is truly risen, alleluia!

Second Spring's first full-colour storybook, The Joyful Meeting tells the story of Easter morning through the eyes of Mary. Amidst the beauty of the paschal garden, in the company of the mother of God, we imagine what it must be like to draw close to the resurrected Jesus.

Having trained and worked as a Montessori teacher and a catechist for three to six-year-olds with the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, and as a home-schooling mother, author Madeleine Carroll believes in the power of beauty to inspire young minds. Her hope is that this story, brought to life by artist Michelle Pitt with delicate colour illustrations, full of realistic detail from the Holy Land, may help adults and children to explore the mystery of the Resurrection together.

This title is the second in the "Good Shepherd Tales" series, and is suitable for around ages 3-8.

God's Covenant with You: The Bible Tells a Story

Written by Scott Hahn and Stratford Caldecott; Illustrated by David Clayton

SCOTT HAHN
God's Covenant with You

The Bible Tells a Story

illustrated by
DAVID CLAYTON

“The story the Bible tells, the story of the Covenant, is the story that, of all stories, we most need to hear, and to teach our children... In this book, David Clayton's beautiful pictures are just as important as the text. They offer a landscape for the child's imagination, in which the child may play freely, while listening to the words that accompany them... These pictures also bear intriguing traces of many artistic traditions, especially the wonderful iconography of the East and the illuminated manuscripts of the West. In this way a love of great Christian art may be enkindled here, alongside a love of Scripture.”

34 pages, paperback, glossy cover. Saddle-stitched colouring book. Size: 215.9 x 279.4 mm (US Letter)

Advent & Christmas stories:

Sheba's Journey

By Susan Bateman

The Bethlehem Shepherds

By Madeleine Carroll;

illustrated by Michelle Pitt

Full-colour and colouring book versions available!

Illustrated by Susan Bateman, Sheba's Journey tells the tale of a special camel who is chosen to carry valuable gifts to a mysterious king. Designed to unpack the mystery of the Epiphany story in Matthew 2:1-12, Sheba's Journey charts the long journey of the Magi through the desert to reach the Holy Land, from Sheba's perspective. When the weary caravan of men and camels finally arrive at their destination, they are in for a surprise. The King they are searching for does not live in a palace, but in a simple stable.

The story is perfect for children aged 7 to 11, though younger children will enjoy the lushly painted illustrations too. Susan Bateman is a retired primary school teacher, a mother and grandmother.

The first tale in the Good Shepherd Tales series written by Madeleine Carroll and illustrated by Michelle Pitt, The Bethlehem Shepherds is a lovely introduction to the heart of the Christmas story, perfect for children aged 3 to 8. It tells the story of Christmas night through the experience of the shepherds, gently drawing the parallels between the shepherds of Bethlehem and the Good Shepherd Himself.

Having trained and worked as a Montessori Teacher and Catechist for three to six-year-olds with The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, and as a home-schooling mother, author Madeleine Carroll believes in the power of beauty in art and language for forming and inspiring young minds. Her hope is that this story, brought to life by artist Michelle Pitt with delicate illustrations, will help adults and children to explore the mystery of the Nativity together.
